Wings Of The World Luggage Labels: Travel Stickers

Synopsis

This box of 20 individual peel and stick luggage labels are suitable for scrapbooking, decoupage, gift wrapping and, of course the adornment of old trunks and luggage. Despite their relatively brief history, airlines have produced some of the most pleasing of all luggage labels. Their designs are bold, with a modern sensibility. We have selected for beauty, rarity, and variety, and include labels from the airlines Garuda, Scadta, Ethiopian, Jersey, Lot Roumanian and Cubana, as well as labels from larger and more familiar carriers such as B.O.A.C. and Lufthansa.

These are very nice. They look great and they are so different. They attach easily and seem to hold on, now after 3 days, not like the other ones I bought Old-Fashioned Luggage Labels (Stickers) (Paperback) Will leave update if they come off.

The stickers look nice, BUT the sticker quality is very basic. These are not durable vinyl/shiny stickers you'd see on most suitcases, meaning the type that can withstand scratches or moisture. These are basically sticker cutouts that were made from a home printer that tear and fade with the slightest abuse. In a nutshell, they'll look nice on your first travel, but after that they're a torn or smeared shard of paper sticking to your luggage.

I'm a professional photographer and I bought these stickers to decorate some vintage luggage for props for HS Senior photography and for use with models. Perfect, almost, the glue is relatively weak and so I've had to apply craft glue, but for $9 how can you go wrong. Anyway, they look perfect, the kids love em and I've used the suitcase in a vintage pinup shoot and the model with the suitcases are published. From the perspective of a photographer and the use as part of a prop they complete the images perfectly, actually, the "luggage" pose are one of the most popular poses by HS Seniors.

These travel stickers are attractive and well made. I suspect they will stay on our trunks for a long time. There are a nice variety from not only U.S. airlines, but also from around the world.

This set is well made and authentic looking. There is a lot of variety in the set and they would be an asset to any vintage looking suitcase.

Bought these for someone else, they stated they were nice and just what they were looking for... stickers for an old trunk.

Redid an old trunk, and bought several boxes. I even antiqued over them and they did not run or bleed.

Laughing Elephant makes other in the reproduction luggage sticker series for under 10 bucks from ...I don't understand the high price (as of this writing, 12 new from $357, 8 Used from $567.83) on this item...is it a mistake?...is this listing confused with an out-of-print book, and not the reproduction luggage labels??? These stickers are great and I love to use them for decorating luggage & beat-up guitar cases. I want to buy them, but not at the price of ~40 times Laughing Elephant's other luggage labels.
